Appears Many Santa Anans

Principals of High Schools In State Discuss Matter
At Fresno

FRESNO, Dec. 22.—Addressing the state high school principals' convention today, Dr. E. P. Snyder, commissioner of vocational training, urged more extensive vocational training in California schools.

Local opinion in regard to the question of dancing among the students of high schools differs widely, though the consensus of opinion, according to expressions obtainable today, seems to be that dances, properly conducted and under proper and capable supervision, are not conducive of great harm.

The problem of whether high school students should be permitted to dance was discussed at length by the state convention of high school principals during the second day's session at Fresno yesterday.

Some principals were opposed to dances, while others declared the boys and girls will seek recreation and if they do not find it in dancing they will in some other manner.

A. E. Wilson of Los Angeles said that the music at dances was blameworthy for the mischief caused in new dances.

"We all believe in muscular control and dancing is beneficial. If the right kind of music is played, it is all right. If the music is syncopated and crashing, the dancers get to ragging," he said.

Superintendent Burcham of Long Beach was of the opinion that school children do not need Bible supervisors as much as dancing supervisors.

The high school principals at Fresno yesterday took no decisive action.

Interviews in regard to the subject obtained in Santa Ana today revealed a wide variety of ideas.

Most of those who were asked as to their views took a decided stand one way or the other, while only a few were noncommittal.

It appears that those who do favor dancing among high school pupils are as one in the opinion that the dances should be regulated and supervisors appointed to see that predetermined laws of conduct are obeyed.

Following are a number of opinions of Santa Anans in regard to whether high school students should be allowed to become devotees of the arts of Terpsichore:

J. A. CRANSTON, city superintendent of schools, "I regard the discussion of the matter at the present time in Santa Ana as unfortunate. There is a strong sentiment here against allowing high school students to dance. The matter has never come up before the present board of school trustees."

"My opinion is that the young people are going to dance. If they are not permitted to dance in one place they will dance in another. The children of some of the parents who are most opposed to dancing dance anyway, somewhere."

"I favor a supervised dance. It should be definitely determined upon in advance what kind of dances are to be allowed and how the dances are to be conducted. Then it should be seen by the supervisor that these decisions are carried out."

"The public dance is harmful for young people. I should greatly prefer a properly supervised dance to the conditions that prevail at present."

"The motion picture theaters are supervised. The cinemas are recognized as a matter of amusement for young people and in my opinion dancing should be supervised in the same way."

E. L. ANDREWS, city school trustee, "Without having given the subject much thought, I will say that I think dancing among high school pupils is unnecessary."

Andrews then laughingly said: "I think it is much more important to educate the head than the heel."

"I do not mean to say that I think there is harm in the social dance but among pupils dancing is out of place for the reason that the dance takes the pupil's mind from important work."

R. R. SMITH, city school trustee, "No, I do not favor dancing among high school students. I do not think that it is conducive to the best interests of the young people to dance."

H. C. DAVES, city school trustee, "I am hardly prepared to give an opinion, as I have not given the subject any thought. The subject is rather a delicate one. I believe that and cons to the problem. I believe that an opinion on a matter of this kind should not be given on the spur of the moment."

MRS. W. L. GRUBB, wife of former city trustee, "I feel very strongly on the subject. I regard the dance as one of the greatest safety valves for

AUSTRIA GUILTY BY OWN ADMISSION IS ESSENCE U. S. NOTE

Terse Second Demand Made For Reparation For Americans Lost

Government Will Not Argue With Teutons Points In Ancona Sinking

LONDON, Dec. 22.—A Vienna telegram, forwarded by Reuter's correspondent, says that delivery to the Austrian Foreign Ministry of the second Ancona note from the United States is announced by the Neue Freie Presse.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The United States will not argue with Austria any points involved in the sinking of the Ancona.

In the second American note to the Vienna government, made public by the state department today when it was delivered to Foreign Minister Burian in Vienna, this government states that it must "renew the definite but respectful demands made in its communication of the sixth of December."

This second note, extremely brief, is friendly in tone, but leaves no doubt of the determination that Austria shall make full reparation for American lives lost and shall punish the Austrian submarine commander whose "culpability is in any case established," and whose act, details of which were given in the Austrian admiralty statement, is held to be "willful violation of the rules of international law and the principles of humanity."

The note addressed to Ambassador Penfield follows:

"DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, Dec. 19, 1915. You are instructed to address a note to the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, textually as follows:

"The government of the United States has received the note of Your Excellency relative to the sinking of the Ancona which was delivered at Vienna on December 15, 1915, and transmitted to Washington and has given the note immediate and careful consideration.

"On November 15, 1915, Baron Zweidnek, the charge d'affaires of the imperial and royal government at Washington, transmitted to the department of state a report of the Austro-Hungarian admiralty regarding the sinking of the steamship Ancona. It was admitted that the vessel was torpedoed after her engines had been stopped and when passengers were still on board. This admission alone is, in the view of the government of the United States sufficient to fix on the commander of the submarine which fired the torpedo, the responsibility for having willfully violated the recognized law of nations and entirely disregarded those humane principles which every belligerent should observe in the conduct of war at sea.

In view of these admitted circumstances the government of the United States feels justified in holding that the details of the sinking of the Ancona, the weight and character of the additional testimony corroborating the admiralty's report and the number of Americans killed or injured are in no way essential matters of discussion. The culpability of the commander is in any case established, and the undisputed fact is that citizens of the United States were killed, injured, or put in jeopardy by his lawless act.

"The rules of international law and the principles of humanity which were thus willfully violated by the commander of the submarine have been so long and so universally recognized and are manifest from the standpoint of right and justice that the government of the United States does not feel called upon to debate them and does not understand that the imperial and royal government questions or disputes them.

"The government of the United States, therefore, finds no other course open to it but to hold the imperial and royal government responsible for the act of its naval commander and to renew the definite, but respectful demands made in its communication of the sixth of December, 1915. It sincerely hopes that the foregoing statement of its position will enable the imperial and royal government to perceive the justice of these demands and to comply with them in the same spirit of frankness and with the same concern for the good relations now existing between the United States and Austria-Hungary which prompted the government of the United States to make them.

POINTS SET FORTH BY U. S. IN ANCONA REJOINDER NOTE

By the Austrian admiralty's own admission that its commander torpedoed the Ancona after her engines stopped and passengers were still aboard, Austria violated international law and "entirely disregarded" humane principles which should govern sea warfare, in America's view.

Details of the sinking, and the matter of who perished, as sought by Austria, are hence "in no way essential matters of discussion."

The commander's culpability, is in any case established. Americans were put in jeopardy by his lawless act.

The administration holds Austria does not question or dispute recognized international law nor humane principles, so the United States does not feel called upon to debate them.

America renews the demands of her original note and "sincerely hopes" Austria will meet them in a spirit of frankness and with "the same concern for good relations" now existing between the nations in which the United States make the demands.

FIFTY AUTO TIRES ARE STOLEN FROM LA HABRA STATION

Olson and Proud Are Losers
$800 In Goods Carted
Away Last Night

Last night fifty automobile tires were stolen from Olson & Proud's filling station on the state highway at La Habra.

No one sleeps at the station, so that the thieves had an easy time of it. It is thought that about 1 o'clock they drove up to the station, opened the door, loaded on tires and ran, and drove away. The tires are worth $800.

KIDNEY DISORDERS QUICKLY RELIEVED

Hundreds of people have been relieved of the agonies caused by weak, diseased or clogged kidneys by using Solvax, the new remedy that quickly reaches the source of all kidney complaints.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides or have any signs of kidney or bladder trouble such as rheumatic pains, puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired and run-down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Solvax will quickly and surely relieve you of your misery.

Solvax is the most potent remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys spit out all the uric acid and poisons left by the blood, and renders the kidneys and urinary organs clean, vigorous and healthy.

Rowley Drug Co., the popular druggists, say that no medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. They therefore sell Solvax under a positive guarantee to quickly relieve the worst cases of kidney trouble or refund the money. Try Solvax today and if you cannot see and feel a decided change for the better just go to Rowley Drug Co. and tell them you want your money back and they will return it without question. This is the strongest argument that can be offered in behalf of any medicine.—Advertisement.

MILLION DOLLAR MINE UNDER SMOKY CITY

PITTSBURG, Pa.—Imbedded under 100 feet of solid earth, a silver vein more than a mile long and 7½ feet deep, and said to contain nearly $1,000,000 worth of pyrites of silver ore, has been discovered on the new United States Bureau of Mines site, Forbes and Craig streets, by Chief Engineer J. D. McTigue.

This discovery was made when Engineer McTigue was surveying land where the boiler room of the new Bureau of Mines building is to be erected. Italian workmen blasting slate saw little white objects, which looked like diamonds to them, nestled among the rocks, and this led to the strike.

It will mean that instead of borrowing from Great Britain, Canada will make advances of credit and funds to England.

CANADA MAKES HALF BILLION IN SHELLS

OTTAWA, Can.—Announcement was made here that an ambitious munitions plan is under way in Canada by which financial houses are to be called upon to join Canadian factories in active service.

It is proposed to tremendously extend the Canadian capacity for producing projectiles and to have a very substantial proportion of the Russian, French and British shell orders filled in Canada.

Shell orders which have been filled or are being filled in Canada have reached the total of $500,000,000. More than 250 manufacturing firms are engaged upon the work, and it is estimated Canadian firms have installed more than $30,000,000 worth of special machinery.

He was the son of the late Isaac Stephens. Mrs. Stephens preceded her husband in death about two years ago at the same hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stephens were pioneer residents of this city, having lived here about thirty years on North Main street. For many years Mr. Stephens was secretary of the Orange County Title Company and had other interests here.

He and his wife went to England to spend their remaining days but still kept up their correspondence with friends here and took the local papers.

RUMOR LINKS LABOR HEADS WITH PLOTS

OFFICERS FROM FOUR TOWNS IN MYSTERY SEARCH FOR SLAYERS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—Acting on a mysterious message that the Mexican bandits who murdered C. P. Macy, the Elsinore storekeeper and wounded his son and daughter in a daring holdup last Thursday night, were in hiding in China, officers from San Bernardino, Riverside, Pomona and Ontario yesterday made a dash to Chino to search for the two men.

The source of the message, which was received first in San Bernardino, was not revealed.

The officers stated that they had received information that both Mexican bandits had worked their way to Chino and probably were being hidden in the Mexican settlement there.

SAYS SEVENTEEN WERE RIDING IN JITNEY

Jury Selected This Morning to Try Damage Suit Against Star Stages

Testifying today in Judge Thomas' court room in the damage action brought by him against individual jitney owners associated together as the star stages, Eben Douglass declared that there were seventeen persons in the Ford jitney from which he fell on the evening of the Fourth of July.

He said that there were several passengers in the machine when he and his wife and two children got into it at Newport Beach. He had a seat, but was directed by the driver, Frank Koons, to give up his seat and stand on the running board, which he did. More passengers were taken in until the five-passenger machine had seventeen in all.

Several miles out from Newport Beach on the boulevard to Santa Ana Douglass' hat blew off. He stuck his head under the top, and called to the driver to stop. He says that the car slowed down, then gave a sudden jerk that threw him off the running board. He struck the back of his head on the pavement, and was unconscious for six days. He asks $1525 damages from the thirteen automobile owners who are alleged to have been associated together under the name of Star Stage.

Many of the defendants disavow any responsibility in the matter, alleging that the association was not a partnership. The machine that Koons was driving belonged to William White.

Douglass said that at Newport Beach was a man who was directing the loading of passengers for the star stages. This man told Koons that one of the tires on the machine Koons was driving needed more air, but Koons did not blow it up.

Six attorneys were in court today. R. Y. Williams and C. D. Swanner appear for Douglass. Bishop, H. C. Head, W. R. Garrett, and M. A. Cain represent the defendants.

The jury was selected this morning. The twelve men chosen are Thomas Ash, John Holt, A. S. Adams, Josiah Luehm, Silas Wright, W. M. Ward, H. E. Carner, William Collar, J. D. Price, James Fenstermacher and George McNeil.

WAR UPON PAIN!
Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.

Mervin H. Soister, Berkeley, Cal., writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new." March, 1915. ## SHALL PUPILS IN HIGH SCHOOL DANCE?

young people. It is conducive to pleasure, but it is really beneficial to the young people mentally as well as physically. It always has seemed so to me. I have always danced, though, of course, not in public. Of course, the dance should be properly conducted. I think it would be a good thing if parents would do more dancing. If the parents would mingle more with the pleasures of their children I think it would be much better for the youngsters."

MRS. C. F. CROSE, president of the Ebell Society. "There is time enough for dancing when the pupils leave school. I am not in favor of allowing the students to dance. A very little dancing might be all right during vacation time, but it seems to me that it is out of place during school terms."

REV. E. J. INWOOD, pastor First Methodist Church. "I really do not think it necessary to quote me. Everyone knows the attitude of the Methodist Church on the subject, that dancing of all kinds is misleading in its moral tendency."

MRS. P. L. TOPLER, president of the Woman's Club. "So far as I can see I think the students should be allowed to dance. I think there is nothing better for the young people. Dancing gives them grace and ease. It is the extremes in dancing, as in all things, that work harm. I advocate proper supervision of the dances, of course."

—a real "man's" store Handkerchief, boxed the way you want them.

MRS. A. J. LAWTON, former president of the Ebell Society. "I see no harm in high school students' dances, provided they are adequately supervised. The young people must have entertainment. I favor esthetic and folk dancing for the students, but the waltz and two-step, conducted under the right kind of supervision would not be harmful, in my opinion."

MRS. A. H. LYON. "I think the juniors and seniors should be permitted to dance, but not the freshmen or sophomores. Every year younger students enter the high schools and for this reason I think that only the two older classes should be allowed to dance. If the younger pupils are allowed to dance, harm is likely to be done."

TROUSERS RIDICULED, GIRLS' SKIRTS RETURN

LONDON, Eng.—The trouser-clad women window-cleaners who began their work bravely in men's overalls a short time ago have now reverted to skirts and blouses. "It was more than flesh and blood could stand," declared one of the women regarding the reception accorded their dress reform movement by the populace.

The Nottingham factory girls were the chief opponents of the new uniform, which consisted of a jacket and trousers closely resembling a workman's overalls. Crowds of girls followed the trouser-clad women through the streets, asking questions and making loud cat-calls. The women went to their employers and protested. Now they are wearing skirts once more.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Efforts today failed to reveal the real nature of Colonel House's mission to Europe. Despite House's denial, it is strongly believed that the trip will probably be a peace expedition. President Wilson may possibly desire to ascertain the belligerents' true peace ideas.

TESTS FOR COLLEGE

Records of four leading colleges were presented to the Middle States Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools a few days ago, on the question of college entrance tests. It was found that those who had been admitted on examination were as a whole better students than those entering on certificate.

The traditional method of sifting applicants for college entrance is by examination. Many generations have passed this dreaded ordeal. They crammed with facts, but might be so flustered on the fateful day as to lose their wits. Others noted dates on their shirt cuffs, or smuggled translations. Self-possessed pupils with meager attainments often made a better showing than those who had done better work, but lacked confidence.

These defects in the "exam" system have led a good many colleges to substitute the method of entrance on certificate. Pupils coming from certain approved schools have been allowed to enter on certificate from the lower school that they had done the required work. It looks fairer, the test being based on their average work for a long period.

The report quoted above suggests that the certificate method also has its defects. There is a common tendency among public school teachers to pass pupils along from year to year, on the ground that if set back they become discouraged and quit school. Thus every class carries about so much dead wood. Where teachers take that view it becomes natural to pass the pupils along the next step into college. In some schools political or social influence may be a factor.

Perhaps the ideal way would be to give equal weight to each kind of test. Every applicant for entrance to college might well be required to take an examination, but equal importance should be attached to his past record. A written test should place but little stress on the remembering of mere facts. The vital question is, can the pupil express himself well, and does he display a general comprehension of the subject?

SYSTEMATIC GIVING

The enormous amount of charitable giving to the poor which takes place at holiday time is the finest manifestation of the Christmas spirit. Not all giving, however, is wisely done. One family with a certain established reputation for worthiness and destination may be provided with several turkey dinners. Others less well known, perhaps too proud to make their wants public, may have nothing.

In country villages cases of destitution are obvious, and gifts to needy families are more or less public, and charity is seldom abused. In the larger cities some form of associated charity organization is absolutely needed to prevent duplication and exposure of frauds.

This work is open to the danger that charity will lose the human touch, and become a mere machine for grinding out routine beneficence. The charity visitor needs an ever vivid sympathy with misfortune. Also there are some near-to-wells who need not charity, but the tonic advice to get out and hustle.

Where a town is not large enough for a thoroughly systematized central charity organization, the same idea should be carried informally. The charity committees of churches, lodges and other organizations should consult confidentially to prevent duplication.

Every one should feel a sense of responsibility for destitution in his own neighborhood, where he knows the circumstances of distress, and can judge of degrees of desert and need. Some of the more personal gifts may not be wisely made. But they bring such a friendly touch of personal relations that they are the most effective force for the heartening of the discouraged. Real charity does not stop with the giving of money. It sees unfortunate people in their own homes. There it can determine whether want is due to the fault of the unfortunate, and in cases of real need one is moved to offer even more generous assistance.

PERSONAL OBSERVATIONS

(By the Editor)

The other day Percy Rice introduced me to his uncle, the Hon. Charles A. Barlow of Bakersfield. We were all waiting at the corner of Fourth and Main for the Los Angeles car.

"Where is Fourth and Main?" asked Mr. Barlow.

"This is Fourth and Main, where we are now," answered Percy.

"Well, do you know," said Mr. Barlow, "I was in Santa Ana—and it doesn't seem so long ago—when there was nothing to the town except Spurgeon's store. Uncle Billy Spurgeon tried to sell me some lots."

"There's going to be a town here," he said, "and you'd better buy some corner lots." He offered me these four corners—I have since learned it was here—for $100, only $25 per lot.

When Mrs. Dibble started to rebuild, recently, on the southeast corner lot, I heard she had refused $50,000 for it. I don't know, of course, that she did, and I wonder if the California National Bank is paying rent on that valuation. If it is it is certainly evidence that the bank is growing or expects to grow very fast. Incidentally, Mr. Barlow is Mrs. James Rice's brother. He has been prominent in California politics and business for many years, having been a member of the State Legislature and afterwards a national congressman from this state.

Speaking of the National Congress reminds me that one of the heroes of my youth has just passed away after thirty years' service in the United States Senate—Francis Marion Cockrell of Missouri.

In the early eighties, Senator Cockrell was the ideal soldier-statesman at whose shrine the boys of that time worshipped. And if this idol of my youth had "feet of clay" my clearer and more questioning manhood vision has never discovered the fact.

Senator Cockrell was a great man because he was a good man. I doubt if he would ever have been regarded as great except for his goodness. Certainly he would never have been enshrined as he is in the hearts of his countrymen if he had been merely great.

No higher or holier ambition could come into the heart of any young man than to have the tribute paid to him when he is dead that was paid to the memory of Senator Cockrell by one of the speakers at a memorial service held at the University of Missouri a few days ago. In closing a beautiful eulogy to the dead senator, one of Missouri's greatest orators and best men—Walter Williams, dean of the Missouri University School of Journalism—said:

"It is not to the Confederate general, not to the statesman, not to the honest politician, and not to the senator that I pay tribute, but only to the man."

And I recall a beautiful, though probably an unconscious, tribute paid to General Cockrell during his lifetime by Roscoe Conkling of New York. Senator Conkling came into the Senate chamber one day just as his name was called when a vote was being taken on an important measure. (Cockrell of course had already voted.) Conkling said: "I did not hear the bill read, Mr. President, not the discussion of its merits, but I will ask to have my vote recorded for or against the measure according to the way Senator Cockrell of Missouri voted."

Here is a high ideal for any young man who enters public life—to so shape his course and conduct as to command such confidence from such men as Roscoe Conkling.

Even those who did not attend the religious revival services that have just come to a close in this city must have been impressed by the published reports of their great success. And what I am going to tell about further on in this paragraph must not be construed as being derogatory of religious services, whether revival or regular in character.

At the same time our services were in progress similar services were going on in another Southern California city and they have just closed with great success.

I read a letter, today, written by a lady in that city to a friend who lives here. The writer told of having been sick. She said:

"I have had absolutely no help, for ——— (her 16-year-old daughter) has been spending all her time, when not at school, at the revival meetings."

Yesterday (Sunday) she spent the whole day, from nine in the morning until ten at night, at church services of some kind—was home at noon only long enough to eat a bowl of soup and abuse me because I hadn't got her a new dress which she saw I couldn't afford. I wonder what kind of religion it is that they teach young people now-a-days, anyway!"

Of course this mother's daughter may have gone to the services just to get out of work at home and to be with other young people; and if so, of course, she didn't learn any kind of religion, whatever kind may have been taught. But that letter set me to thinking how easy it is for mothers and daughters and fathers and sons to get a crooked, twisted, perverted point of view in religious matters.

AFTER THE WAR--WHAT?

By W. D. James, Elder of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church

Sherman said, "War is hell." He was mistaken. War is worse than hell. Hell is the place where, after the judgment day, the wicked are to be punished according to what they deserve. But in war the innocent are punished, and the instigators of the bloody carnage go unpunished. War will never cease as long as men are unregenerate, and the nations glorify war by putting the laurel wreath on the brows of those who send shot and shell crashing through the bodies of men.

Men are horrified at the disregard of international law and treaty obligations by the belligerent powers engaged in the present war. But the necessities of war recognize no law, either human or divine, as too sacred to break. It is utterly folly for men to think that men frenzied by the spirit and exigencies of war will respect law, justice, or humanity. War is entirely outside of God's purpose, and is not amenable to any law or obligation.

Terrible as the present war is, in its destruction of human life and its disregard of the restraints of law and justice, yet this war is as nothing in comparison to the significant and terrible things that will immediately follow the present conflict. New and startling developments will come quickly. Men everywhere will be ready to condemn the old regime as a total failure, and unfit to rule humanity. Remedies of all kinds will be suggested to avert future wars, and to usher in a reign of universal and lasting peace. All kinds of extensive religious combinations will be effected in order to guide the ship of state safely over the turbulent political seas. Attempts will be made to have the voice of the church dictate legislation, and have the civil officers submit to the decrees of the church, and regard its pronouncements as an equivalent to a "Thus saith the Lord."

They will demand righteousness by law, God and Christianity legally recognized in the fundamental law of the land, a standard of religion set up for all men by the state, and Sunday laws universally enforced, irrespective of individual faith or conscience in the matter. All these things will follow in quick succession as proposed remedies, and the authority of the church will be exalted above the state.

History repeats itself with unflinching accuracy. When the Roman government went to pieces after the days of Constantine, the church took advantage of the situation and placed her reign, which was at first welcomed, proved to be the bane and the wreck and ruin of civilization for centuries. No greater calamity could befall our republic than for it to repudiate its constitutional guarantees of individual freedom in religious matters, and its strict adherence to purely civil functions. Unless our rulers maintain an uncompromising loyalty to the fundamental principles upon which our government was founded, a worse catastrophe will befall our nation than that which the nations of Europe. The losses of war are forgotten in a few days, but the subjection of the civil power to the spiritual powers will inaugurate a train of evils which two millenniums could not efface. Omens of the coming storm and upheaval are clearly visible in the religious, political and social worlds.

Very sincerely yours,
W. P. JAMES,
Elder of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

PARADE PERMIT IS NECESSARY TO MOVE FOREIGN SHIPMENT

Export Order of 34 Truckloads Escorted Through Chicago Streets By a Squad of Mounted Police

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Chicago's Christmas shoppers witnessed a very unusual sight today when the Channell Chemical Company hauled a shipment of Ocetide Oil Mops through the business section of the city, and which was consigned to a foreign port.

This shipment, weighing 175 tons and valued at $52,000, formed such a long procession that it was necessary to first obtain a parade permit before the merchandise could be taken to the freight station.

Headed by Police

A squad of mounted police headed this unique parade, which was five blocks in length, and for some time all downtown traffic was completely blocked. The shipment was an outright sale and taxed the load capacity of thirty-four immense trucks, each of which was decorated with American flags and carried bunting signs reading, "One order to one country."

This is by far the largest single order of oil mops for floors ever shipped by any concern at one time, and is the result of an aggressive campaign on the part of the Channell Chemical Company for foreign business. Since the world war began this company has sold more than 750,000 mops in Europe alone.

Former Shipment Submarine
A previous export shipment, fully insured at its value of $42,000, and carried by the steamship Iskander, went to the bottom when this boat was torpedoed recently by a submarine.

WOMAN CREATES SCENE IN COURT; FAILS TO GET GRAND CHILDREN

OAKLAND, Dec. 22.—Failing in her fight to get the custody of two grandchildren, Louisa Cook, 50, ripped the clothes off of John Cook, 4, in court, yelling: "I bought these clothes. I worked for them. I fed the children since their mother died. They are mine."

Court attaches quelled the woman. The children were given to their father, a deaf mute.

PRE-NUPTIAL LUNCHEON

Mrs. Crose and Mrs. Rowland
Hostesses For Miss Crose,
Tonight's Bride

Miss Helen Crose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crose of this city, who tonight will become the bride of Ira Hart of Flagstaff, Ariz., was the honored guest yesterday at a charming 1 o'clock luncheon, Mrs. Crose and Mrs. F. C. Rowland being the hostesses at the home of the former.

The central motif was a large basket filled with stately poinsettias and red-shaded candles cast a deep glow over the pretty scene. The bride place cards added to the effect and a perky cupid in a heart was suspended above the bride-elect's place. The dainty little nut baskets carried the same rich colors. Luncheon was served in six delicious courses.

The living rooms were hung with red-berried pepper boughs and the poinsettia blossoms shone about the rooms. A hidden shower of gifts was a delightful feature, each pretty gift discovered holding a ticket pointing the way to the next package. Social conversation was enjoyed.

Besides the hostesses and honoree, the guests included Misses Estella Nisson, Rena and Alice Cranston and Grace Downing of this city; Miss Grace Clark of Long Beach and Mrs. Newton Crose of Fort Collins, Colo.

Dr. Howerth Visits

Dr. I. W. Howerth of the University of California, who has been on a tour in the southern part of the state arranging for the Raymond lecture course, stopped over night with his old-time acquaintance, J. A. Hankey. In the evening he attended the special meeting of the Monday Club, at which he presented the plan of this course of lectures which will be given here in the near future. Incidentally he indulged in reminiscences as he and J. A. Hankey were the founders of the club which is now in its twenty-sixth year, and congratulated the members on the success of the organization and stated among other things that the Monday Club had been to him the inspiration which induced him to found a similar club in Chicago during the time of his work in the University of Chicago. Out of this club, he said, eight other clubs had come into existence, all of which are now in a flourishing condition.

CLUB'S FOUNDER HERE

Speaks Before Monday
Club Last Night

The Monday Club met in special session last evening at 7:30 in the library building. Prof. Howerth, head of the University Extension division of the University of California, being the chief guest of the evening. He was one of the founders of the club and gave an interesting talk on the work of the university in attempting to reach the citizens of the state of California through the medium of its extension department. Prof. Howerth outlined clearly the purposes of the six bureaus by which the great work of extension is carried on.

Most of these bureaus give their services free to anyone who desires information, but the Bureau of Public Lectures is made self-supporting. Dr. Howerth explained the nature of this course of lectures, now being conducted under the extension department of the University of California, and lectures were brought to Santa Ana. The course is delivered by an expert extension lecturer of twenty years successful experience, Prof. Jerome Hall Raymond, Ph. D., a graduate of Northwestern University and University of Chicago. Prof. Raymond has devoted himself to the study of political and social conditions and has studied carefully the countries about which he lectures. In the prosecution of his studies he has travelled widely, and has had the privilege of personal conference with many eminent scholars and active men and women of affairs in Germany, Austria, Turkey and England. His lectures are always beautifully illustrated by lantern slides, which appear silently and without interrupting the continuity of the speaker's address. He has lectured successfully at San Diego, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Monrovia and nearly every city of any size throughout California.

There are six lectures in the course, given one a week, and the subjects are as follows: Constantinople; The Disintegration of Turkey; Russia: The Struggle Against Autocracy; Austria-Hungary: The Whirlpool of Race Antagonism; Berlin and the Conflict with Militarism in Germany; Paris and the Victory of the New Radicalism in France; London and the Struggle for Progress in England.

All the members of the Monday Club present were heartily in favor of bringing the course of lectures to Santa Ana. There were several guests from the Present Day Club present all of whom eagerly endorsed the plan of Prof. Howerth. The gentlemen present pledged themselves to finance the course and make it a success. The committee for making all arrangements consists of Prof. J. A. Cranston, Prof. E. M. Neatley, chairman, and T. B. Kelly, secretary of the Monday Club.

Original Idea Carried Out By
Miss Mary Taylor In Social Affair Yesterday

Miss Mary A. Taylor gave a unique party at her home on Edgewood road yesterday afternoon, entertaining about fifty of her friends at a Christmas fan party. Christmas bells, holly and poinsettias decked the home and gave a festive air of the holidays to the appointments.

Fan contests of various kinds amused the guests for a portion of the beautiful afternoon and Mrs. S. M. Deering of Orange pleased with several readings, Miss Gladys Burns rendered delightful instrumental numbers and Mrs. Talbot gave vocal solos which were greatly enjoyed.

In the fan contests the prizes were won by Mrs. E. B. Burns and Mrs. O. H. Maryatt.

A delectable two-course collation was served. A long table held a miniature Christmas tree, decorated with candles and tinsel, for an attractive centerpiece and other smaller tables were centered with red-shaded candelabra.

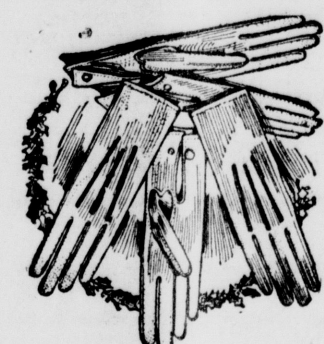

Miss Taylor was assisted throughout the afternoon by Misses Margaret Wiley, Norma Wingood and Alberta Black.

STORE CHANGES HANDS

The Chicago Store, which for the past seventeen years has been in business here under the management of M. Nasatir, was purchased this week by M. Karp. The new proprietor came to Santa Ana with his family from Texas about a year ago and has been associated with Mr. Nasatir during the time he has been here. Before coming to Santa Ana Mr. Karp had a contract to buy the Chicago Store at the end of a year, provided that everything was satisfactory. He states that he is more than pleased with the business as well as with Santa Ana and that he expects to make his permanent home here. New lines of goods are being added and the stock of goods has been greatly enlarged.

Mr. Karp was manager of a large mercantile business in Texas for a number of years before coming here and has a thorough knowledge of all the details of modern merchandising. He will follow the same general lines upon which Mr. Nasatir built up the success of the Chicago Store.

Auction Bridge Club Makes
Merry At Home of Mrs. H.
T. Duckett Yesterday

The Auction Bridge club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. H. T. Duckett on Orange avenue and while the games were as interesting as ever, the delightful feature of the afternoon was a lovely Christmas tree, which was a distinct surprise to all but one or two of the members, who had assisted the genial little hostess.

Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner, Mrs. F. P. Clarkson and Mrs. M. A. Flood were the guests of the club. Mrs. Baumgartner being the fortunate winner of the first prize and Mrs. George Briggs taking the consolation.

Holly and poinsettias made effective decorations and on the tree was found a pretty gift for each lady present, each one taking a remembrance for some one else.

A prettily served two course feast of good things to eat concluded the jolly afternoon, those present besides the hostess and honored ladies being Mesdames Russell Scott, R. R. Shafer, O. K. Forgy, George S. Briggs, E. S. Morrow, A. W. Rutan, Cal D. Lester, R. E. Whitted and C. S. Kendall.

TELLS OF VISIT TO OFFICE OF REGISTER

Miss Gladys Thomas Describes Journey Through the Mazes Of Printing Shop

Recently the commercial English class of the Santa Ana High School visited the Register office, under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. Webber. Each pupil was told by the teacher to turn in a composition describing the trip, or telling something of some of the features that caught particular attention.

From among the compositions, the following very excellent production was written by Miss Gladys Thomas:

"The sun beamed down its rays almost piercing the earth. A hot sultry breeze disordered the hair and parched the lips of the commercial English class as they began their weary walk to the Register office, determined to learn the working and ways of printing the newspaper, as directed to discover by their teacher.

An enthusiastic, live attitude was shown by them. The ruling of a mammoth ledger, which was in the process of making, caught the eyes of one group, especially in preparing the different colored lines on the pages. Long strips of a choice quality of outing flannel were dipped in bowls of blue and red ink, frightfully staining the hands of the workmen which we feared would never come off, as he took the strips from the bowls carefully and skillfully twining and entwining each in its separate place on the many pages, vertically and horizontally arranged on the roller.

After the ruling was completed, the leaves were put together, a strip of cloth about an inch wide was placed over the back of the leaves and fastened with several loops of thread ready for the covers. The books for Seal Beach were shown as near completion.

Many other pupils surrounded the $4000 linotype machine, drinking in its wonders. The operator thoughtfully played on the keyboard, which is similar to a typewriter, causing each letter, which is stored in a separate magazine, to be released by some mechanical action. These magazines appear to be narrow grooves, set vertically in a parallel line, as the different letters are struck they obediently respond to the touch by dropping into place to be carried off by a large mechanical arm to perform their mission of printing. The type is then melted over and used again.

After spending an hour asking questions and listening to answers from some one of the experienced employees, who were always ready to give any information that would in any way be helpful to the grasping, knowledge-seeking students, they beheld the fascinating finishing of the papers, at the rate of seventy-seven per minute.

Eight pages are arranged in order and then taken to the duplex printing machine. Numbers one, three, five and seven are printed from above while numbers two, four, six and eight are printed from below. Later they are cut through the center, one side turning in one direction and the other side in the other direction. They are then numbered and folded ready for distribution, $500 worth of paper being used in one month.

The pupils were all glad to have the opportunity of knowing the values of machines, papers, etc., and appreciated the great courtesy extended by the Register. After gaining the required information the students joyously left the building for other paths of learning.

HOLE CUT IN CASKET AT RABBI'S REQUEST

ST. LOUIS.—The instructions contained in the will of Zachariah Joseph Rosenfeld, who died about two months ago, were carried out as far as possible, according to members of his family. The will was read shortly after his death.

Rabbi Rosenfeld was for twenty-five years in charge of Shalom Synagogue at 1500 Wash street and was considered one of the best informed men in this country on the laws of the Talmud.

One of the provisions of the will was that a hole through by three inches should be cut in his casket at a point where his backbone should rest, and that the casket should contain no metal nails. The family explained that this was in accordance with an orthodox Jewish practice as it was desirable that the backbone should rest on the earth and become a part of it as soon as possible. It was also desired that the casket itself should disintegrate and for this reason metal nails were not used.

Rabbi Rosenfeld's grave occupies four ordinary burial lots, according to his instructions. This was because the rabbi did not wish his body, when it again mingled with the earth, to become mixed with the body of any other person.

COUNTY RARE FRUITS TO BE EXHIBITED AT MISSOURI CONVENTION

When the Missouri State Horticultural convention is held during six days in January, at Columbia, Mo., there will be an exhibition of a display of fifteen varieties of rare fruits grown in Orange county.

The exhibit is now being gathered by D. W. McDannald, who acted as Orange county representative at the Panama-Pacific exposition, San Francisco.

Commissioner Waters of Missouri, who saw the exposition exhibit of Orange county rare fruits, was so pleased with the variety and quality of fruits in the display that he prevailed upon McDannald to enter a like display at the coming Missouri convention.

Commissioner Waters proposed that all the expense be borne by the Missouri people and this proposition was accepted by McDannald.

"From 500 to 1000 of the most progressive and representative fruit growers of Missouri attend the Horticultural convention," said McDannald today. "Putting the exhibit of Orange county rare fruits on display there will result in much good publicity for our county."

"I have nearly completed getting the display together. Among the fruits are some mangoes, which I truly believe are the finest ever grown in the United States."

RECOMMEND CHANGE IN BANKING LAW

County Bankers' Association Holds Successful Meeting Last Night

At a meeting of the Orange County Bankers' Association held last night at the Orange County Savings and Trust Company, a resolution was passed recommending to Congress that the present law regarding the borrowing of money from the Federal Reserve Bank be amended so that banks may borrow money direct from the Federal Reserve banks without, as at present, discounting customers' notes.

The matter came up for consideration before the resolution was finally passed. Other matters of interest to the banking fraternity were brought up and discussed informally. There were no formal addresses.

Thirteen of the nineteen Orange county banks in the Association were represented at the meeting.

Following the meeting the bankers adjourned to the Dragon for refreshments.

"Hush," said a magazine editor sternly. "Hush! That's Blank, the famous short-story writer. You can't have genius, you know, without eccentricity."

"Perhaps not," said Mr. Le Gallienne, "but, judging from what he writes, you can evidently have a deuced big lot of eccentricity without genius."

ELECTRIC HEATED UNDERWEAR FOR GERMANS

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—(By Mail.)—Germany's latest scientific contribution to war is electrically heated underwear.

The inventors are Max Beck, professor of technical electricity, University of Innsbruck and lieutenant of engineers, and Professor von Schrotter of the University of Vienna. The electrically heated underwear is made of non-conducting material interwoven with a system of fine wires. For each series of trenches it is necessary to install an electrical plant, from which conducting wires are carried. When a soldier feels cold, all he has to do is connect up his underwear with the current wires. The garment offers special facilities for warming the hands merely by placing them in the pockets of the trousers. One possible danger of the electrically heated underwear is a short circuit, but the inventors are confident they have practically eliminated this possibility by a secret system. As now perfected it will be possible for soldiers to warm themselves with this electrical clothing in trenches about 400 feet in front of the electrical plant; in isolated advance posts, the underwear may be warmed 1500 feet away. A transformer located in the trenches regulates the degree of warmth.

A full wired pair of drawers weighs less than two pounds and costs only $20. They will be extensively used on the Russian front this winter.

FOX CHASED BY FORD CLIMBS TREE

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 21.—Hundreds of persons who never placed much credence in the theory that foxes can climb trees when pushed to the limit, gathered at the dog show of the Atlantic Kennel Club to gaze on the sable aspect of Sir Reynard, the fox run down west of Sandy Springs by a company of hunters in automobiles of the Norwegian or Fjord variety.

Two ancient traditions stood horribly unmasked and violated. The first concerned Sir Reynard's ability to climb a slick pine sapling, which bore three strands of barb wire at its base, and the second had to do with the abolition of the horse as a necessary part of the chase.

Led by William J. Stoddard, pacemaker; J. T. Jones of Atlanta and Steve McCurdy of Stone Mountain, owners of the fourteen hungry hounds, and Owen Gilbert, proprietor of a fox that had been penned up four months, the gay party left the dog show at 9 o'clock in six cars.

In a stubble field bordered by a fringe of thick scrub pines the fox was poked out of the box with a stick and immediately put on his foxy demeanor. He executed a column left and crossed the road, then circled around again. By this time the dogs had broken loose and soon they were sending up short, snappy yelps as they scented his hide.

Thirty-seven minutes elapsed and the yelps of the pack gave out, and the hunters knew the fox was up a tree. Mr. Jones climbed the tree, while the others held the dogs as well as they could, and when Mr. Jones clutched the fox by the neck (failing to secure a flying leap to earth), the fox sent up a wail that melted the hearts of the cruel hunters and called out every early-to-bed resident to see what was the matter.

BOARD OF FORESTRY

SOON TO PLANT
BEACH ROAD
TO TREES

Five Miles At Buena Park Set Out—Now At Work On the State Highway

At a meeting of the County Board of Forestry yesterday it was decided to commence planting trees along the Newport Beach boulevard within a few days.

About five miles of trees have just been set out at Buena Park, and the planting crew is now at work planting two open sections of the state highway. One of these sections is north of the County Hospital, and the other is north of the Fullerton city limits. No attempt is to be made to plant close to the orchards in La Habra and south of Fullerton.

A portion of the paved road between Anaheim and Placentia is to be planted, and another open section near Olinda will be put in trees. Work upon the Newport Beach boulevard will probably be started immediately after these four short sections in the north end of the county are planted.

At the meeting yesterday the secretary, T. E. Stephenson, was instructed to petition the State Highway Commission for a permit to plant trees on the state highway south of Santa Ana. Plans as to how much planting will be done to the south have not yet been fully developed.

Trees Are Provided

A number of applications for trees from the county nursery for planting along the county roads were received, and were granted.

Earl Talcott and his neighbors at Orangewood got together and decided to plant their frontages, which total one and three-fourth miles of trees. They are to plant the trees and care for them.

Another petition for highway planting came from I. M. Von Schiltz of Old Newport. Von Schiltz has about two and a half miles of frontage.

The members of the Board of Forestry present yesterday were A. S. Bradford of Placentia, R. E. Carter of Wintersburg, A. E. Bennett of Tustin and T. E. Stephenson of Santa Ana.

URGE FRANCE TO REJOIN FRENCH
IMMORTALS

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, Nov. 10.—(By Mail.)—Since war and other causes have threatened to exterminate the French Academy's Hall of Forty Immortals by cutting its membership so low it hasn't enough legal votes to perpetuate itself, urgent pleas have been made to Anatole France, himself an immortal, to forget the misunderstanding he had with his fellow Immortals a few years ago and come back with his much needed vote. France has not indicated whether he will do so. Of the forty Immortals who constitute this illustrious body, death has claimed these six: Jules Claretie, Henry Roujon, Alfred Mezières, Jules Lemaitre, M. de Mun and Paul Hervieu. Four new Immortals who have been elected: General Lyautey, Pierre de la Gorce, Alfred Capus and Henri Bergson, have not been invested with the rights of Academicians entitling them to vote on new members. Valid election as an Immortal requires a number of votes not now to be had. It is being urged that the four new members be invested with the right to vote although they are not yet full fledged Academicians. Memberships of other institutes connected with the French Academy also are depleted of members on account of the war. The Institute of Belles Lettres has three vacancies; that of Sciences six; that of Fine Arts three and that of Moral and Political Sciences six. Not a few of these vacancies were caused by the fact that the respective institutes struck from their roll of membership all Germans who had previously been honored by election. Delay in filling these vacancies is due partly to the desire to have seats vacant when peace comes so they may be conferred upon the conquering heroes.

ON ASSESSMENT STANDARD OIL APPEALS

On Last Day, Company Files
Documents Taking Case
To Higher Court

The Standard Oil Company has taken an appeal from the decision of the Orange County Superior Court throwing out of court the Standard's suit for a return of taxes. Documents perfecting the appeal were filed yesterday, the last day on which the appeal could be taken.

The action brought by the oil company was based upon its objections to an assessment placed by County Assessor James Sleeper upon the company's oil property at Buena Park. Sleeper's assessment compelled the Standard to pay about $35,000 more taxes on the 1914 assessment than the company alleges that it ought to have paid. At the time the taxes were collected, the oil company protested vigorously, but Assessor Sleeper stood pat on his assessment, which he declared was entirely reasonable, considering the fact that the greatest oil well known to the oil industry was on the property.

District Attorney West and Deputies Koepsel and Eden entered a demurrer to the oil company's complaint, and the superior court sustained the demurrer. Upon that ruling the oil company is taking its appeal.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT SAYS HUSBAND MADE HER DO THE FORGERY

Woman With Nine-months-old
Baby Is Taken To Jail,
Caravantes Is Gone

Bearing in her arms a 9-months-old baby, Mrs. Harry T. Caravantes was taken to jail today on a charge of forgery. She admits that she is guilty, but declares that her husband made her sign the checks.

According to the information secured by the officers, Ramon Basquez, whose true name is Geronimo Garcia, and Caravantes floated several bad checks at El Modena. Constable W. R. Coleman has sworn to a complaint in which he accuses these two men and Mrs. Caravantes jointly with forgery.

Garcia and Mrs. Caravantes have been arrested, but Caravantes, a smooth individual, is not to be found. His wife says that in Bakersfield and in Fresno her husband passed bad checks.

Caravantes first came to the notice of officers here several months ago when he was arrested for running a gambling game back of his barber shop at Los Alamitos. At that time he was also accused of giving a no-fund check. He served part of a sentence in the prisoners' camp below Laguna Beach.

Last week he had a man arrested for pulling a gun on him in S. L. Vinson's pool room at El Modena. Vinson has since sworn to a complaint charging Caravantes with stealing a check. Caravantes is a good dresser and rather a good looking Spaniard. He talks excellent English.

Case Continued
E. J. Watts, manager of ranch property owned by Rev. Alfred Quetu of San Juan Castrano, was in court today. His case was continued to December 27. Watts was arrested here on a charge of reckless driving of an automobile. He was taken to Oceanside, where he was held to answer for trial in the superior court on a charge of causing injuries to three persons who were in a machine said to have been wrecked by Watts.

SLOT MACHINE SLUGS MADE, SOLD IN L. A. DETECTIVES ALLEGE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—While initial steps were taken by the city council yesterday to make the substituting of worthless metal slugs for nickels in coin slot telephones in Los Angeles a misdemeanor, detectives representing the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company secured information showing that these slugs are being made wholesale and sold by the pound by several local concerns.

A petition from bankers, hotel men and other business men complaining of the slug evil and asking that an ordinance be passed making this practice a misdemeanor was received by the city council.

SMUGGLER KING IS BELIEVED NEAR ARREST

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—The capture of A. ## BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY BACKS ORANGE SHOW PROJECT $500

F. W. Struck, Supervisor, Is Named Representative on Exposition Commission

After carefully looked over the figures relative to the county's advertising funds, the board of supervisors yesterday afternoon voted to appropriate $500 to the Associated Chambers of Commerce for placing a feature Orange county exhibit at the National Orange Show to be held in San Bernardino, January 17 to 22.

This action came after the supervisors had told the Associated Chambers of Commerce committee that it was not likely that a decision could be reached before January 4. However, time was taken for an immediate investigation so that the committee would know what to count upon, as it wants to get to work right away in making its preparations.

It is proposed to spend $1000 on the exhibit. Of that amount $500 is to be raised among the various chambers of commerce, boards of trade and improvement associations that are affiliated with the Associated Chambers of Commerce. Each booster organization is to be assessed in accordance with its membership, the smallest assessment being $5 and the biggest $30, the latter being the amount that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce is expected to contribute.

A. S. Bradford, chief booster for the exhibit, has reserved space for the Orange county exhibit. The assurance is given that the space will be one of the best in the exhibition tent.

Struck Is Named

Yesterday afternoon plans for the continuation of the work of the Southern California Exposition Commission at the San Diego Exposition during 1916 were talked over. R. W. Prichard, chairman of the Los Angeles board of supervisors and Los Angeles county's representative on the commission, was present. It was shown that the work will be kept up on a smaller basis than last year, but effective work will be done.

Supervisor F. W. Struck of Orange was selected by the Orange county board as this county's representative on the exposition commission.

Aid Commissioner W. S. Gregg

submitted the following report concerning indigents from November 16 to December 20: Total allowance for November, $2463.56. Cash payments discontinued, $287.75. Merchandise discontinued, $299.79. Merchandise reductions, $166.10. Total reductions, $753.64. Emergency cases, $40.67. Ten new applications, $91. Five jail cases, $25. Total new additions, $156.67. With the reductions made, the allowance for December is $1966.59.

Seven applications, for various reasons, were rejected.

This report shows the wisdom of the board in establishing the office of county aid commissioner. The saving accomplished is cumulative, as it is not only for this past month but for the next month and more months to come.

To Map the River

Assessor Sleeper was given instructions to have a map drawn of the Santa Ana river channel from the Santa Fe bridge at Olive to the head of the Newbert Protection District river work. The purpose of the map is to aid the assessor in making assessments along the river.

Leeds Appointed

The Harbor Commission appeared before the supervisors and stated that it had appointed Capt. Chas. T. Leeds of Los Angeles as harbor engineer. The supervisors confirmed the appointment. Captain Leeds is to be paid $200 a month for four months, for ten days' employment each month. Captain Leeds was formerly a government harbor engineer.

Roads Are Accepted

The group of roads built at Tustin by Hart & Ducey were accepted by the county as completed.

A map of E. E. Therman's addition to Buena Park was accepted. The Anaheim protection committee was given permission to use lumber from the old bridge across the Santa Ana river between Anaheim and Olive. This lumber is to be used in strengthening the dike above the new concrete bridge.

The hearing of the petition of H. A. Robbins to close a road in the Bolsa road district was set for January 18. The Board of Supervisors adjourned to January 4.

WAR PLOT SUSPECT, MISSING, HUNTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—The hunt for more evidence and additional witnesses against Baron Wilhelm Von Bricken, attaché of the German consulate here, C. C. Crowley, secret service operative, and Mrs. Margaret Cornell, indicted by the Federal grand jury on conspiracy charges, was resumed yesterday by the Federal investigators.

New leads were discovered Monday through the evidence given by a number of witnesses called before the grand jury.

The search for Emille Sellie, who disappeared from the Hotel Ormond, was renewed yesterday. Sellie is believed to have been an employee of Crowley's and Von Bricken's. A Federal subpoena is out for him, but thus far he has not been found. Sellie's disappearance was as mysterious as that of Robert Capelle, agent for the North German Lloyd Company here, for whom the Federal sleuths have been searching for three weeks unsuccessfully.

The grand jury went into the Sacramento case Monday, seeking to establish a possible connection between the ammunition conspiracy and the anti-neutrality conspiracy, through a common expense fund.

The principal witness Monday was Bernard Hauschild, chief clerk of the North German Lloyd. He said he knew nothing about any large sum of money having been sent here and paid out for supplies for the Sacramento, nor anything about the whereabouts of his superior, Robert Capelle.

WIFE OF JAPANESE PASTOR IS LOCATED

Mrs. T. S. Ban, wife of the pastor of an independent Japanese mission here, has been found in Los Angeles. The woman disappeared from her home in this city Friday evening. It was feared that she had committed suicide. It has been learned that she is visiting friends in Los Angeles. Word that she is safe was received here Monday evening.

CHICAGO'S POLICE FORCE BIGGEST IN WORLD

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—A citizen police force 20,000 strong, in addition to the regular force, is being formed here today. When complete it will give Chicago the largest police force in the world. According to the plan, suggested by seven millionaires, members of the Industrial Club of Chicago, every block in the city will have a citizen policeman serving without pay. He will work with the police and health authorities in the district. It is hoped that he will prod into action the careless cops on the regular force. The first duty of the citizen policeman will be to gain the friendship of the partolman on the beat. His chief work will be observation. He will not have the power to make an arrest, but is expected to report unsanitary conditions and law violations. Residents in his block will be expected to co-operate with him. "The citizen police force will make Chicago's police department the most efficient in the world," said Louis Damon, secretary of the movement, known as Chicago Civic Co-operators. "Already the regular police are commencing to show interest in the program. They have gotten 6000 copies of the city ordinances and are showing more discretion in their official acts."

Each citizen policeman is provided with a card of authority which bears the signature of the mayor, chief of police and the head of the health department.

A STRANGE CASE.

Blood Turned to Water

Oakland, Cal.—"My sister-in-law was poisoned, her blood turned to water, the doctors gave her up, said she could never be cured. She finally took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which cured her. We consider it a miracle."

"I have had six operations which left me in a nervous state, with loss of sleep and appetite. I commenced using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets. My general health commenced to improve after the first bottle. I took six bottles and was cured, gained 30 pounds. I wish to give Dr. Pierce the highest endorsement for his remedies."—Mrs. MAE TRUDOW, 801 26th St.

Many California people need this powerful vegetable remedy that puts the stomach, liver and bowels in fine condition; that clears the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes, and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves stronger and steadier, and gives to pale, weak, run-down people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, free from alcohol or narcotics, does just what is stated above, simply because it banishes from the blood all the impure deposits and carries them out, as it does all impurities, through the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin.

If you have a bad cough, bronchial, nasal or other catarrh, misty nerves or unsightly skin, get Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to-day and start at once to replace your impure blood with the kind that puts energy and ambition into you and brings back youth and vigorous action.

All medicine dealers can supply you in either liquid or tablet form or send 50 cents for trial box of tablets to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for free booklet on blood.

BRITAIN STIRRED BY CHARGES IN COMMONS WAR MISMANAGEMENT

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Great Britain last night was stirred by the gravest statements of mismanagement that have been made since the war began. Here are some of the assertions made by eminent Englishmen in the House of Commons:

PREMIER ASQUITH: "There has been an abundance of errors and miscalculations."

SIR EDWARD CARSON: "There is a great scandal somewhere. The withdrawal of our troops was hailed as a kind of victory. Why, then, were our men left so long in the hell of Gallipoli?"

JOHN DILLON, M. P.: "No failures are due to lack of men. Before conscription is enforced the men responsible for our failures must be removed."

JOHN REDMOND, M. P.: "Why has not a certain dispatch from Sir Ian Hamilton been made public? I understand it is something of a scandal."

The House of Commons was still sitting at 4 o'clock this morning. Many members protested against the House being kept in session so late and attempted to get the debate adjourned, but the ministers insisted that the vote for the million extra men must be passed.

Premier Asquith made his long expected statement on the allies' military position in the House of Commons yesterday in connection with the introduction of a "supplementary estimate" providing for the raising of the numerical strength of the British army from 3,000,000 men to 4,000,000 men.

The House was crowded and the Premier's speech was listened to eagerly and silently. In the Peers' gallery, Lord Fisher, the former first sea lord, and Earl Derby, director of recruiting, occupied the most prominent position above the clerk.

The Prime Minister, as usual, got to the heart of his subject in his opening sentence and declared that although the British fighting forces in the various theaters now amount to more than 1,250,000 men, the war's demands were such as necessitated calling out the Empire's "recruitable maximum."

Although the Premier did not put himself on record as either for or against conscription, John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, at the close of Mr. Asquith's speech, flung a bomb shell by declaring that the Nationalists would oppose conscription by every means in their power, and John Dillon followed with a severe arraignment of the British war leadership, inquiring: "What is the use of sending more troops to be led by men like those responsible for the Suva Bay and Anzac failures?"

The Premier's statement of the need of the army for "every fit man" included a warm tribute to the overseas soldiers and he took pains to mention particularly "the men eager to be attested who had made application from far distant places—Hong Kong, Rhodesia, California"—adding: "This has been a commentary on the lethargy of some of those here at home. No more splendid exhibition of patriotism and self-denial could be conceived, or one more calculated to carry conviction to the hearts of all our gallant allies."

Referring to the Derby scheme, Mr. Asquith said the report from Lord Derby had only been sent to him Monday evening and was now being considered by the members of the cabinet. Therefore any statement regarding the government policy on this subject must be deferred. He indicated, however, that another chance would be given those who had not yet responded, saying: "Those who have been disposed to hang back may now seize the opportunity set them by the mass of their fellow countrymen."

Turning to the military situation, he Premier said that the retirement from the Dardanelles positions, with the notable exception of the position on the tip of the peninsula had been taken on the advice of General Munro and Earl Kitchener.

"The retirement," he continued, "was an operation of peculiar hazard, for the least misjudgment might have led to serious loss. It was carried out by the navy and army combined in a manner for which no praise could be too high and which will give the services enduring fame in the annals of warfare."

"With the exception of a relatively small proportion of the stores and a very few guns, which had to be left behind and which were destroyed, the whole force at both places was removed with perfect serenity. The total casualties—it seems almost incredible—in the whole operation were two military and one naval wounded. "I am sure that the public will take the earliest opportunity to express its admiration and gratitude to General Munro for carrying out these operations; while other officers deserving special praise are General Birdwood and Admiral Wemyss, the latter supervising the naval operations."

"It is most gratifying to know that these splendid troops were embarked to a new destination without the loss of a single life, and after a short and much needed rest, they will be ready—and I am sure, also eager—to resume their gallant career."

Summing up the government's war policy, Mr. Asquith said:

"In order to win the war, we want an adequate supply of trained men to reinforce and augment the army in the field. We want next an ever-growing supply of munitions. We want further such a stewardship of the economic resources of the country as will enable us to lift and carry the financial burden which we are called upon to bear in behalf of ourselves and our allies."

"Finally, what perhaps is as important as anything, we want to counteract the advantage the enemy has over us in a single direction, by greater unity and concerted strategic control among the allies. The staff conferences inaugurated in Paris a fortnight ago will mean a greater concentration of purpose, co-ordination of plan, economy of energy and effectiveness of action."

In closing Mr. Asquith referred to the speech of Lloyd-George, minister of munitions, Monday, saying:

"I agree with the minister of munitions that while at this or that moment the superficial facts of the campaign seem against us, the facts that really in the long run matters are steadily and growingly on our side. There has been in this war as in other wars, an abundance of errors and miscalculations on both sides, but our will has never wavered for a moment and our fighting resources, both in men and material, are becoming more ample, better organized and better mobilized for the purposes of victory."

Scores Asquith Speech
John Dillon, in a fiery speech opposed the granting of Asquith's request for an additional million men. He said:

"The Premier's speech is deplorably lacking in any attempt to justify the adding of the fourth million. We place no reasonable limit on the size of the army. We are traveling a road that leads not to victory, but to ruin and loss of the war."

MAP KEEPS WILSON IN TOUCH WITH WAR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—President Wilson is a peace-loving official, but the walls of the cabinet room do not indicate it. Huge maps of all the war zones of Europe cover the walls and on each map the battle lines of the opposing hosts are drawn. Col. W. W. Harris, the President's aid, is in charge of all the "battlefields." He adjusts the tiny flags and colored cords which indicate how the different armies are moving from day to day.

MYSTERY MAN STARTED ANTI-HYPHEN SCHOOL THIRTY YEARS AGO

EL PASO, Texas, Dec. 22.—The Aoy School here is extracting the hyphen from 1200 young Mexican-Americans annually. Thirty American teachers are employed teaching according to the Gary system. Swarthy little muchachos and muchachas become plain American girls and boys with American ways and American ideals. The school was founded more than thirty years ago by a Spaniard, thought to have been a refugee from Mexico. He began his educational work in the little hut where he lived. Gradually his school grew and after his death a few years ago, it was taken over by the board of education. It is believed that "Aoy" were the initials of the strange man, for all in Mexico no one of that name has been found.

COUGHS AND COLDS DANGEROUS

Dangerous Bronchial and Lung diseases follow a neglected cold. As your body struggles against cold germs, no better aid can be had than Dr. King's New Discovery. Its merit has been tested by old and young. In use over 45 years, it gets a bottle today. Avoid the risk of serious Lung ailments. Drug-gists.

TEXAS DEBATERS COMING OUT WEST

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23.—The fame of the University of California's debating team has spread beyond the Rocky Mountains and the University of Texas has completed arrangements to send a team to Los Angeles in the near future to meet the Trojans. The question to be discussed will be the increased armament of the United States.

FIFTEEN JOLLY GERMAN LADIES SCHEDULED TO INVAD E BROADWAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Broadway experts to be descended upon today by fifteen staid and middle-aged ladies of the Hoboken Pleasure club, equipped with a map of the White Light district and the $25,000 that 75-year-old Mrs. Augustus Pape willed them before she died two weeks ago, "to be expended in laughs because she felt so grateful and so jolly." Of the fifteen amply proportioned and exceedingly jolly German ladies in the Hoboken Pleasure club, none was more ample nor jolly than Mrs. Pape. She played pinocle with as much enthusiasm as a 75-year old lady may be expected to exhibit, danced with all the grace her rheumatism permitted and sang "Deutschland und Uder Alles" two hours before departing forever from the jolity of this mundane sphere Mrs. Pape, was the widow of Dr. Gotthold Pape, maker of indigestion remedies. Today, it all goes as well as it should in such a jolly world, the fifteen expansive matrons will cram themselves into bulging taxicabs and whisk through the glare of Long Acre Square to the most brightly lighted and expensive lobster palace then can find.
